

Julie Becker Named Vice President of Community-Based Services at Children's Friend and Family Services

Julie Becker has been named Vice President of Community-Based Services at Children's Friend and Family Services. Trained as a Clinical Psychologist and also a parent of a youth with challenges, Becker brings a unique perspective to her specialization in System of Care and Wraparound development. For the past 15 years, Julie has developed policies, Wraparound programs and training curriculum to support the work of Family Support Partners, Care Managers and Managers. As a founding member of the National Wraparound Initiative she is able to use her practical experience to bear on developing high quality standards for Wraparound practice. Other areas of interest include developing clinical programs for specific ethnic groups.

Becker has served as a consultant to Children's Friend and Family Services for the past two years. "I think highly of Children's Friend and look forward to working in the community on its behalf," says Becker. She lives in New Hampshire with her large extended family.
