David Grey Named Children's Friend and Family Services Chairman of the Board

David Grey has been named Chairman of the Board of Children's Friend and Family Services I Salem. "David brings to our organization a deep commitment to our mission, and strong strategic and management intelligence," says Steve Schaffer, Children's Friend and Family Services President.

Grey has served as a member of the board of directors as well as being involved in the Youth Mentoring Program. "I look forward to utilizing my business skills to work with the board to bring Children's Friend and Family Services to the next level in its proud 170-year history," says Grey.

Grey is the principal of Grey Investments, a family office located in Salem, Massachusetts. From 1986 to 2002 he served as President and Chief Executive Officer of IpswichBank. Mr. Grey took the bank public in 1993 and sold it to Banknorth in 2002. He is a 1977 graduate of Northeastern University with a BS in economics. He has served as a Corporator of the Boys and Girls Club of Lynn since 1984 and is a Mentor at Children's Friend. He resides in Wenham with his wife Janet and two daughters.

Children's Friend and Family Services is a private, nonprofit organization committed to providing innovative, community-based counseling and related support services for youth in Essex County. Children's Friend and Family Services serves more than 5,000 children and family members each year through a variety of programs and services available at our Salem center and offices in Lynn, Gloucester, Amesbury and Lawrence. The licensed mental health professionals, mentors, volunteers and staff at Children's Friend and Family Services are dedicated to meet the evolving needs of the communities it serves.
